

References

Project: Mineral Oil refinery, Kiel

Period: 1993 - 1997

Contract Volume: 97,000 €

Client: Private client

Short Description: Exploration, investigation, danger estimation, development of a "clean-up" concept with cost prediction for the location of oil refinery.

- Historical studies of the refinery site
- Danger estimates
- Formulation of an concept for detailed investigation with approval from the authorities.
- Investigation on various "clean-up" concepts and alternatives
- Preparation, execution and supervision of the detailed investigation in soil, groundwater and groundwater measuring stations.
- Supervision during the contaminated soil withdrawal
- Evaluation of the investigation results with final danger assessments
- Recommendation of a "clean-up" procedure with cost estimation and approval from authorities